Delivering No Matter What

Ensuring service delivery in humanitarian settings in Mauritania

Yacoub Ebnou

Programme Director, Association Mauritanienne
pour la Promotion de la Famille, Mauritania

Gender Based Violence in humanitarian settings

- ▶ Established a coordination committee with women leaders from the camp for the identification of GBV survivors
- ▶ Provide training for midwives and community health workers on GBV
- ▶ Screening, counseling, medical and psychosocial support for the survivors

Providing services to highly vulnerable women and girls in M'Berra Camp

- ▶ Services are provided in an environment free of stigma and discrimination, within a Human Rights framework
- ▶ Inclusion and ensuring leaving no one behind in terms of disabilities and vulnerabilities is critical to all interventions

What is a day delivering services in M'Berra Camp like?

- ▶ 8:00 AM-16:00 PM: AMPF is delivering services to refugees in the camp
- ▶ Services are provided 7 days a week
- ▶ Daily roundtrip of 44km from Bassiknou to M'Berra camp
- ▶ Ensuring WHO procedures related to prevention of Covid-19 are fully observed
